afternoon to Mr. John D. Rush. It develops that the Baltimore police may be right in their supposition that the suicide found at the Stafford Hotel, that city, was Mike Cummings, of Norfolk. While not the uncle of the Misses Hoban, who failed to identify the photograph, there was another Mike Cum-graph, there was another Mike Cummings, a tailor, who went hence to Raleigh, N. eC. Some of his friends think the body may be his.

J. J. Johnson, charged with forging a will, purporting to have been signed by his wife, was re-indicted in the Hustings Court of Portsmouth to-da; Much sensational evidence will be adduced at the trial.

John Pickens, indicted for the murder of Maggie Grant, colored, whom his struck on the bead with a lamp, was fined $20 to-day. Upon payment of the amount he was discharged. Although the woman died, the evidence was not conclusive that Pickens' blow caused her death. He was fined for assault.

issued and that none will be issued for the arrest of Former President Grover Cleveland, who, with a party of friends, is hunting ducks and other game on the preserves of the Back Bay Gunning Club, in Princess Anne county. The reason no warrant will be issued is that there is no game warden in Princess Anne county. The body of an infant, horribly multiated by dogs, was found to-day near Lambert's Point. It was supposed to have been murdered.
